Dear Ms. Brelsford:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2018-000846), dated February 27, 2018, in which you requested information on an insurance claim for a Government vehicle, specifically the following:

"A debt turned over to the Department of Treasury for an incident regarding an government vehicle. No ticket was issued. Only a police report. The case # is 2057289. I would like to see proof of the damage that is being claimed. If there was physical damage to the government vehicle there would have been a police violation written against me. And how can there not be any damage to my Ford Escape and $5000.00 damage to another vehicle. The Massachusetts State police have to records they can find nor does The Fall River Police. Thank you for submitting the information requested."

Please find the documents responsive to your request. The enclosure contains the following documents:

- GSA Vehicle Claim No. V0111026 letter sent 04/16/2015
- Invoice - Vehicle tear down for estimate writing
- Commonwealth of Massachusetts Motor Vehicle Crash Police Report
- Commonwealth of Massachusetts Motor Vehicle Crash Exchange Form
- Pictures of government vehicle

Please note that during our search it was determined these documents were previously provided to you.

GSA is withholding the citizen's name and other personally identifiable information under the provisions of the sixth statutory exemption to the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6)), which permits an agency to withhold information that could reasonably be
